

Henry Moore Sculptures

Today, we made sculptures based on the work of Henry Moore. We used bronze paint and modelling clay.

Facts About Henry Moore

- Henry Moore trained to become a teacher before he even considered becoming a sculptor.
- He was famous for making bronze sculptures that looked like basic shapes of people.

- His flat was bombed in September 1940 so he moved to Perry Green in Hertfordshire.
- Lots of books were written about his sculptures including: 'An introduction to Henry Moore' and 'Henry Moore drawings, the art of seeing'.
